

A Yes, sir.

Q What property did your grandmother own at the time of her death, as far as you know?

A Of course I have never seen the deeds; I have no direct knowledge. My information is she owned the property 103 East Second Street; summer residence at Braddock Heights and a residential property in Knoxville; all in Frederick County, Maryland.

Q Did she leave any money in bank, to your knowledge?

A Not to my knowledge.

Q Did she own any personal property at the time of her death, to your knowledge?

A Yes, I can say so.

Q What was that?

A Household furniture.

Q Was this property that she had other than just general household effects? A. No, sir.

Q That is all the property she had?

A That is all that I know of.

Q Was her personal property which she left sufficient to pay the debts due by her estate to her creditors?

A Not to the best of my knowledge.

Q Have you ever discussed that question with the persons named as executors of her will?

A No, sir.

Q Never discussed it with any of them?

A No, sir.

Q Was the personal estate of which your grandmother died seized and possessed sufficient to pay her debts?

A No, sir.

Q Are all the children of Ida M. Markey, deceased, included as Defendants in this case? A. Yes, sir.

Q Are all the grandchildren of Ida M. Markey, deceased, included as Defendants in this case? A. Yes, sir.

TO THE GEN. INT. - Nothing further.